

The Phoenix Flier

The Yarm Preparatory School Newsletter

Issue 769 — Friday 8th March 2024

A message from Mr Sawyer

Welcome to this week's Phoenix which gives you a summary of the happenings at the Prep School in the last week or so. We were delighted to see nearly 70 young chess players take part in the school round of the UK Chess Challenge last Saturday last. This is the oldest running chess competition in the world and for our pupils it presents the chance to put their skills to the test against familiar opponents. There was a great deal of high level chess being played throughout and a significant amount of development. It was pleasing to speak to the children who had suffered defeat, they spoke of learning from their losses and displayed a resilient mindset to setbacks. This 'win or learn' approach, as opposed to 'win or lose', is an empowering philosophy that can be applied in many areas of life. Embedding it at an early age is certainly key to a fruitful school career and something that for us starts in Nursery and continues throughout.

We were thrilled to see such warm support for our Telford House charity day this week in aid of The Bungalow Partnership. Our Year 6 pupils always take great pride in running their stalls and the school community never fails to generously get behind such endeavours. We look forward to welcoming a representative from The Bungalow Partnership who will explain to the children how their funds will be used. The yellow items of clothing worn on the day were eclipsed only by the array of World Book Day characters that trooped into school on Thursday this week. It was a colourful and enriching sight to see a love of books being celebrated in this way and through the many activities that were organised. More on this in our next edition. I hope you enjoy this week's Phoenix Flier.

UK Chess Challenge—Prep School Round

Last weekend brought our latest major chess event, in the form of the initial stage of the Delancey UK Chess Challenge.

67 eager children entered the tournament, which featured all year groups from Year 2 to Year 6. We used the highly impressive new Hazel Andrews hall for the first time.

The Year 2s were playing in their first chess event and thoroughly enjoyed the experience. After seven tough rounds, Arya Jafari emerged as the section winner with a very impressive score of 21/21. The new Year 2 Girls' Champion is Shanaya Chauhan, who won all of her games apart from the one she lost to Arya.

Jayden Wang also scored 21/21 to win the Year 3 section but the battle for the Girls' title was much closer and ended in a four-way tie between Edie Thompson, Zoyaa Soni, Karunya Garg and Rosie Lowe.

In keeping with our usual policy, we didn't apply tie-breakers or play-offs (which is how other parts of the country like to resolve tied places) but instead we awarded all four girls with a title and a trophy.

We saw another 21/21 in the Year 4 section, which brought tournament success to Dara Jafari - and not for the first time. Scarlett Yang is the new Year 4 Girls' Champion.

The Year 5 section was the only one without a 21/21 scoreline. Rory Fitzgerald lost his first game but then showed remarkable resilience and consistency to win his next six games, all against dangerous opponents, to win the section.

Manha Abdullah also recovered well from some early setbacks to finish strongly and become the new Year 5 Girls' Champion.

Miles Page was in full control in the Year 6 section and won all of his games to comfortably take the title.

The road to the Girls' title proved to be a much tougher battle and it ended in a dramatic three-way tie between Anika Sunkavalli, Lolwa Soliman and Kaira Nalawade.

Mr Marsh

The next stage of the UK Chess Challenge is the Teesside Megafinal, which will once again be held at the magnificent Princess Alexandra Auditorium, on Sunday 5th May. The Megafinal is open to ALL of our players, but please book early if you would like to participate, as we always sell out of all 150 places and we cannot create any more once they have gone. Entry details and form are to be found here: <https://www.delanceyuschoolschesschallenge.com/product/2024-teesside-megafinal/> If you would like further details of this event please see Mr. Grundmann. We hope to see you all there.

Telford Charity Day

On Tuesday, the Y6 Telfordians ran a variety of stalls in order to raise money for the Bungalow Partnership In Middlesbrough. This is a charity that looks to improve the lives of young people in the local area through supporting and bettering their emotional wellbeing. Further information on the charity can be found in this link <https://www.thebungalowpartnership.co.uk/>.

I am pleased to report that, at the time of writing, Telford have raised a staggering £519.21. This is an awesome achievement and shows how well our school community mobilises in order to support local charities. The Y6 Telfordians showed wonderful resourcefulness and independence in running their stalls and gathering donations. All children in Years 3 to 6 also wore an item of yellow, the house colours, and donated £1 to charity. Thank you, children!

I would like to thank my colleagues in Telford: Mrs Hart, Mr Frank and Mrs Underwood for supporting the event. Additionally, I would like to thank the fabulous Y6 pupils (and their parents) for creating resources and providing prizes. Their entrepreneurial spirit and enterprise will have given them a taste for the Summer Fair where they will, once more, create and run stalls to raise money. Well done, Telford!

PE and Games News

Year 5 House Netball

On Friday, the Year 5 girls took part in the House Netball Competition. Despite the rain and cold conditions, all girls gave 100% and worked well in their house teams. Some teams were supported by Year 6 players to make up numbers so that all teams had 7 members. There were some tactical centre passes on display, accurate shooting and plenty of dodging and moving into space. The girls showed respect when doing the three cheers and they selected player of the match too! Congratulations to Daisy, Holly, Bella, Emily Q, Manha and Evelyn on getting Players of the Match! The final results were: Brunel, in fourth place; Arkwright, in third place; Telford, in second; and STEPHENSON, as our overall Year 5

House Netball Winners! Well done to everyone involved in what was a fantastic afternoon of netball!

Under 11 Football v NSB and Dame Allan's

On a cold, wet Friday afternoon in Gosforth, our Under 11 boys took part in a Northeast triangular derby against Newcastle School For Boys and Dame Allan's. The venue was Goals at Gosforth Park, right next to Newcastle Racecourse. The modern, 4G surface allowed slick, passing football. All of the boys enjoyed the fixtures and the football on show was fantastic. Many spectacular goals were scored by the players. Special mention must go to Joseph Austin for his Beckenbaueresque performance, confidently dribbling out of defence and creating attacking options. Pradyoth Karanam was a demon in goal, blocking many shots. Well done to all the boys for playing well in some tricky weather conditions.

Mr Harandon

In2 Boys' Hockey

On Wednesday the 14th February, the Year 6 boys played a fixture in the in2 hockey tournament. It was a great battle with the final score being 4-2 to Yarm. The scorers were Rex- 2 and Miles -2. It was a great opportunity to show off what we have learnt in the many games lessons we have participated in. We are very excited to see who we play next. Thank you to Mr Underwood, Mr Harandon and Mr Trubshaw for making the game enjoyable and possible.

Telford Enterprise Carousel

Mrs Covell, who has built up a large property portfolio which she rents out, came to speak to our budding entrepreneurs in Telford.

She gave a wonderfully informative presentation on being a landlady and a snapshot into her life as an entrepreneur. The children listened intently as she gave a 'warts and all' insight into what it is like to be self employed as a landlady.

Mrs Covell described how she built up her property portfolio over the years and also explained to us many financial terms like what equity is in a property and how one gets a mortgage from a bank. She then went through the types of skills one needs to be an effective landlady, which included being good at DIY, and also how she has had to respond to the ever changing marketplace and customer needs.

Thank you Mrs Covell for giving up your time to talk to us today. It was a valuable learning experience and immensely appreciated by us all.

What Parents & Carers Need to Know about MICROTRANSACTIONS

Microtransactions (often abbreviated as "MTX") are digital purchases made within an app or game to unlock extra features or additional content such as new levels. A popular sub-set of these are loot boxes, which contain a selection (usually random) of virtual items: from character skins to game-changing equipment like better weapons. Microtransactions (and loot boxes in particular) are now widespread in apps and games, but concerns persist that they normalise gambling and can foster addictive behaviours – especially among younger players.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

GATEWAY TO GAMBLING?

Microtransactions have been criticised for promoting gambling-adjacent behaviour in children. Research has also suggested that exposure to the loot box system could affect the likelihood of a young person suffering gambling harms later in life: children who purchased or used loot boxes in the last 12 months were found to be more likely to have gambled during the same period, as well.

ADDICTIVE NATURE

Microtransactions (and loot boxes especially) could lead to young people displaying compulsive behaviours. Loot boxes are designed to be addictive, and the sought-after prizes they contain are dispensed at random. This means that young gamers might not get what they want straight away, causing them to spend more money as well as additional time gaming.

PAYING TO WIN

In many popular games (the FIFA series being a notable example), microtransactions make it far easier to succeed – which is a concern because children can often find it difficult to keep track of their spending. Once a child starts making in-game purchases, they may continue buying to keep up with their friends and other players – sometimes without recognising the mounting real-world cost.

EXCLUSIVE CONTENT

DATA COLLECTION

To allow a young person to complete microtransactions, many app and game developers collect personal data such as their name, address, email, geolocation information, photos, payment details and so on. Even if this data remains secure (which is by no means guaranteed), there's always the chance that it will be used – and possibly sold on to third parties – for marketing purposes.

AFFECTING DAILY ROUTINE

Online games tend to revolve around repeated loops of activity that can affect purchasing decisions and potentially influence children's spending patterns. This could lead to your child not only handing over more money but also adjusting their daily routine to match the game's schedule – potentially impacting more important elements of their day, such as homework and family time.

SATELLITE SPENDING

If you've linked a payment method like a debit card or a PayPal account to your child's game or app, it's wise to keep a close eye on their microtransactions to ensure they aren't racking up a large bill. Letting a child have access to your card (if they're still too young to have their own) or other means of payment could also lead to them spending beyond the apps and games they normally use.

Advice for Parents & Carers

DO YOUR RESEARCH

It's important to have a serviceable idea of whether the games your child plays use the loot box system (even if it goes by a different name) or include the option of buying items, equipment and so forth. If so, it's crucial to help your child understand that this costs actual money, and that they shouldn't feel pressured into making any purchases.

CHAT ABOUT 'CHANCE'

It may help to explain to your child that many microtransactions involve an element of chance: they could pay money and still not get what they want in return. Emphasise that – while not usually costing much individually – these in-app and in-game purchases can soon add up. Talk to your child about how spending their money in a game or app means they have less to use in the real world.

(GIFT) CARDS ON THE TABLE

Investing in an in-game currency gift card can be a useful way of helping your child get to grips with budgeting. If you buy, say, a £10 V-bucks Fortnite gift card, monitor how long it takes them to spend it. When they come to you asking for more, you could make it the starting point for a conversation about how quickly that money went and how they could earn their next gift card.

STOP SPENDING AT SOURCE

You might decide that the wisest strategy is to remove the potential for spending money on microtransactions. If so, most games, apps and devices have options in their settings to help you manage what your child can spend – or to disable that function altogether, preventing them from buying additional items for their games or boosted functionality for certain apps.

WATCH FOR THE SIGNS

If you're worried that your child's passion for a particular game or app may tempt them into habitual spending on microtransactions, it's important to remember the indicators of addictive behaviour. Irritability, a lack of concentration and prioritising recreational screen time ahead of homework or mealtimes could all be signs that you need to have a conversation about a more balanced routine.

Curiosity Emporium

I went to the Curiosity Emporium which was about what Mrs Kirk would do in the future. She talked about her design job and she showed us all of the processes. This was inspiring and it has got me thinking about this job!

Erin G.

Mrs Kirk's Curiosity Emporium was interesting and made me want to try new things. I found looking at her job fascinating.

Amelia C.

It was really interesting and her job sounds very exciting for her. Mrs Kirk showed us her design ideas and they look quite creative.

Rebecca N.

Mrs Kirk's Curiosity Emporium was interesting. I really liked the creativity of her designs.

Harry H.

I found it interesting learning about the different spaces and how they nurture the needs of children with special needs.

Olivia G.

The Curiosity Emporium was interesting. It taught me lots about design and the process you have to go through to be a designer. Overall it was an enjoyable experience for us all who came.

Under 10 Football

On Friday we played Scarborough. The score was 2-1 to Yarm. We played the match on the senior astro. Both teams were good because they were passing the ball down the line and into space. There was a light drizzle and some grey clouds. Henry Stanley was Yarm's keeper and a good one; he only let one goal in out of seven shots on goal.

Scarborough's keeper let two goals in out of about 15 shots on goal. Yarm's defenders were superb in the final quarter of the game. They kept the score down as Scarborough were on the constant attack in the last quarter of the game. Scarborough's defenders were always looking to mark our strikers as well as wingers. The game was a fair one and fun.

Tooled Up Education

If you have a school-aged child then you're more than likely aware of World Book Day on March 7th. This annual event promotes books, authors and a love of reading to all children.

As parents it's essential that we do everything we can to develop reading for pleasure in our children. As English teacher Patrick Cragg reflected in a Wednesday Wisdom from last year, research highlights the enormous long-term benefits for children of a healthy reading diet, not just in academic performance across all subjects but in emotional wellbeing and social skills.

Begin with our tips and video on reading to your child, and learn about the importance of phonics for early readers in this webinar from Professor Kathy Rastle.

Our platform contains poems you can read to your children, book lists for 11-13-year olds and for teenagers with titles that will appeal to young people who just need that one, engaging book that will get their reading journey started. If you have any recommended titles to add, our team would love to hear from you.

March 8th marks International Women's Day and we have a wealth of resources and information for helping the girls and young women in your family feel empowered and inspired. Tune into our brilliant podcast on the importance of body knowledge for young women as well as the importance of exercise for mental fitness.

Families can read through our list of 50 Fantastic Female Sporting Role Models with children and discuss which sporting stories inspire you the most! If you have children who enjoy sport and want to excel, consider watching our Q&A with England Women's Lacrosse captain Laura Merrifield.

Perhaps in this World Book Day Week with its focus on International Womens' achievements, it is the perfect time to introduce your children to this list of books featuring 'strong female characters'. Parents can derive some book inspiration from this list of recommended reads from the Tooled Up team.

Finally, this busy week also saw World Hearing Day on March 3rd. Explore Tooled Up's accessible and informative resources on deafness and hearing loss, beginning with our 20 Things to Know about deafness, and this webinar with audiologist Dr Joy Rosenberg on building resilience in deaf children.

The Tooled Up library is already packed with almost 350 evidence-based resources, including interviews with over 80 leading experts from around the world. But, it's your library and we want to know how else we can help you? What new resources would you like to see? Which ones do you love? What could we do better?

We always value your feedback and want to ensure that we are giving you the resources that you need. Email us at research@tooledupeducation.com to let us know how we are doing!

As a parent at a Tooled Up school, you have full unlimited access to the Tooled Up library. If you have not created your account yet, click here to register for an account.
